

Press Release

For Immediate Release

The Rural Alberta Business Centre (RABC) Cold Lake Accepts Award from Economic Developers Alberta

May 12, 2016

Cold Lake, AB - The Rural Alberta Business Centre (RABC) Cold Lake is honoured to have received the award from Economic Developers Alberta for Business Retention and Expansion, Small Community/Region Category, for the Cold Lake RABC Business Incubator.

Economic Developers Alberta (EDA) is Alberta's leading economic development network. .

Left to right: Mayor of Whitecourt, MaryAnn Chichak, RABC Small Business Advisor, Kathryn Hotte, Minister Deron Bilous, Economic Development and Trade, Matt Cornall, President EDA

The annual awards program recognizes the province's best economic development marketing materials, programs, partnerships and professionals that have made significant contributions to the profession. Awards are presented at the EDA's Annual Conference at the Delta Kananaskis Lodge. Their 2016 Conference was held from April 6th to 8th and was their most successful to date with 434 delegates, 26 partners and over 70 speakers and moderators.

The business incubator initiative was the first viable solution to offer a space and a comprehensive program to effectively get businesses off the ground and eventually on their own," says Kathryn Hotte, Small Business Advisor for the RABC Cold Lake.

About the Rural Alberta Business Centre (RABC)

The Rural Alberta Business Centre (RABC) is a partnership between the Government of Alberta and the Northeast Alberta Information HUB (Alberta HUB).

The RABC office is located in Cold Lake and provides advice and free information services to entrepreneurs and small businesses throughout the Alberta HUB region to assist them in making informed business decisions.

Inquiries can be directed to:

Kathryn Hotte 780-594-1090 or email – advisor@northeastrabc.ca.

Bob Bezpalko, Executive Director,
Northeast Alberta Information HUB (Alberta HUB) 780-645-1155